Gentlemen:—

I am instructed to DETAIN AS MISBRANDED all shipments of beer consigned AFTER DECEMBER 1, 1911, labeled "PILSENER" which DO NOT COME FROM the town of Pilsen, Austria. The attention of Shippers, Importers and Brokers is called to this decision in order that they may act accordingly.

Respectfully,

C. L. Winton,

Chief of Chicago Laboratory.

A similar letter has been issued and forwarded to the trade by the New York office of the above department signed by

A. W. Ogden,
Acting Chief.

Men Who Are Not and What People Say.

John J. Geraghty, the popular button and badge manufacturer, would make a splendid member of congress and his big army of friends are working to send him there in the Eighth district.

Albert J. Hopkins, the popular former United States Senator, will take a foremost part in the big campaign this year.

No man on the Municipal Court bench has made a cleaner or abler record than Judge John R. Caverly.

M. J. Faherty, the well known real estate man, stands foremost among Chicago's leading business men and public spirited citizens.

Edward J. Queeny of the Third ward is a candidate for nomination on the democratic ticket for Municipal court judge.

Bernard F. Weber, well known in the public and business life of Chicago, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for alderman in the Twenty-sixth ward and intends to put up an aggressive and winning fight. Mr. Weber is well known to the citizens of the Twenty-sixth ward and no man is more popular in the ward. He served in the city council before and his record as alderman is one that he and his friends can always point to with pride. He showed himself to be a public official who is at all times looking out for the interests of the people. He served two terms in the council and of the many good things he accomplished for the people while there two in particular stand out as showing the kind of a public official he was. One of them was the single fare ordinance which helped build up the city so well and also saved the people money. Mr. Weber was the original single fare alderman. The other important work he accomplished was the trolley ordinance. Mr. Weber is the father of the present trolley system in Chicago. He introduced the first ordinance into the council and after a hard fight through his efforts it was passed. He is the kind of a man the people need in the city council. Mr. Weber has been for years in the real estate and brick business and this, coupled with his public record, makes his candidacy one that appeals to all classes of voters. A successful business man and a man of experience in public affairs like Mr. Weber is the right man to send to the city council.

Patrick J. Devlin of the Thirty-first ward has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the state board of equalization.

Rolla R. Longenecker, eldest son of Joel M. Longenecker, once state's attorney of Cook county, will seek the Republican nomination for that office.

William McKinley, who was the Democratic candidate for alderman in the Twenty-fifth ward, has announced his candidacy for the legislature in the Thirty-first district.

A. A. Worley's candidacy for Municipal judge on the Democratic ticket is gaining in strength every day. He enjoys a widespread popularity in Chicago.

No imported beer on the market today has met with greater success than that handled by August Luchow. The Original Pilsener, from Pilsen, Bohemia, is sold by this big concern, as is also the famous Würzburger Hofbräu from Würzburg, Bavaria. These beers are the favorites at Chicago's leading clubs, restaurants and buffets. They are without a peer. The Chicago offices of August Luchow are located in the Stock Exchange building, 20 North LaSalle street and are under the management of Hans Luchow. Mr. Luchow has made a splendid record for the business in the West and he enjoys a widespread popularity among Chicago's leading business men and citizens.

Judge Dunne has the people with him from the start in his campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

George W. Paullin, the well-known furrier and member of the sanitary board, is being strong urged for congress in the Tenth district. He is the right man for the place.

Joseph F. Connelly is far in the lead in the race for the Democratic nomination for county recorder. He is deservedly popular with all classes and will prove a winning candidate.
